

GENE TUNNEY KNOCKED OUT
IN SEVENTH—IF MOTION PICTURES
DON'T LIE TUNNEY
WAS OUT—BEAT DEMPSEY
BADLY LATER

If Gene Tunney, heavyweight boxing champion of the world, was not "out" for at least several seconds after Jack Dempsey had clouted him six times on the chin in the historic seventh round—then the moving picture record of the famous battle of a century lies.

And in the same breath, if anyone says that Tunney did not administer a thorough lashing to Dempsey before and after the seventh round, after seeing these pictures, they'd be mental candidates for anybody's mental hospital.

Wonderful Film

A pre-showing of the fight film, being released in Calgary through the educational films, was held for the benefit of local newspapers in the Film Exchange building, Thursday afternoon, through the courtesy of Frank Fisher, the local manager, and to the fact that the film is a "knockout" would be putting it mildly. It is without a doubt the best picture of its kind ever shown in any part of the world.

The events leading up to the knockdown are filmed faithfully and every blow struck in the seventh round are clearly reproduced. When the going boomed for the first time, both men met in the centre of the ring and sparred lightly. Tunney led with a couple of timid rights, hooked in a left and danced away. As he glided back along the ropes, Dempsey suddenly released a ferocious attack.

Mr. Tunney Was Out

He hit Tunney five times with both hands, and the champion took them all on the face and head and was groggy. The sixth blow was a terrific left jab and Tunney dropped to the canvas. A pitiful, dazed look overspread his features—his jaw hung loosely, his eyes rolled, and the arm which supported his quivering body, shook—it looked as if he was going to fall flat on his back.

And then came the miracle. As Referee Barry tolled out the long count, Tunney's whole attitude changed. He drew himself together, planted both feet firmly on the canvas, and as the referee's arm raised for the stroke of ten—Tunney arose and the race was on.

The Marathon Is On

Some writers say that Tunney got up and back-pedaled. Others write that he ran. He did neither. He just galloped. Not a steady horse show canter, but a real honest to goodness gallop that tied Dempsey up in knots, and turned him dizzy trying to keep track of his opponent. In and out Tunney weaved. His feet must have beat a tattoo as he circled around dodging the challenger's wild swings. He was as steady on his feet as a bull elephant and as fast as a whippet and Dempsey, tired out from trying to catch him, stopped wearily in the centre of the ring and waved to Tunney to come on.

Dempsey Badly Beaten

The last two rounds must have been torture for Dempsey, for the champion literally cut him to ribbons, and although he walked to his corner steadily enough when the going sounded at the end of the last round, his face was a mass of blood and bruises—and Mr. Tunney—well, the first thing he did was to walk over to the radio microphone and announce something like this:

"Ladies and Gentlemen—On behalf of myself and the members of my entourage, I wish to inform you that I have been declared the winner in a rather—shall I say, strenuous, flaccid encounter, with one William Harrison Dempsey. I was a trifle careless in the seventh round, but I promise not to become so negligent again. Good night."

The film will be shown at the Empress November 9th and 10th.

COSGRAVE WINS — ELECTED
PRESIDENT BY 76 TO 70

Dublin, Oct. 11.—W. T. Cosgrave was re-elected president of the Irish Free State executive council by the Dail Eireann by a vote of 76 to 70 today.

Michael Hayes today was unanimously re-elected speaker of the Dail Eireann when it opened its great session.

Great interest was shown in the opening of the new Dail. Crowds gathered outside the building and cheered the prominent deputies as they arrived.

Representatives of foreign governments sat in the gallery for distinguished visitors. Tom Johnson, Laborite, and Patrick Baxter of the Farmers' party, both leaders defeated in the election, were also present in the gallery.

WHEAT POOL NEWS NOTES

Quite a number of United States citizens, who own land in Alberta, are joining the Wheat Pool. Just recently Senator J. W. Reid, of Idaho, signed a contract covering two and a half sections of land in the Maple Creek district.

Writing in The Farm & Ranch Review, C. W. Peterson says: "It seems obvious to me that an organization which controls the wheat production of 135,000 farmers, fifty per cent of all Canada's wheat and twenty-five per cent of the world's exportable surplus, and which is organized to render services to its membership at actual cost, can effect such economies in handling, and has such tremendous power, that to place it side by side with the comparatively puny efforts of even the greatest of private grain handling concerns is fantastic in the extreme."

The total handlings of the Alberta Pool elevators from the 1926 crop was 5,376,758 bushels for the forty-two houses, or an average of about 128,000 bushels per elevator. The first nine elevators were: Strome, 275,658 bus., Ponoka, 223,436 bus., Coaldale, 222,272 bus., Killam, 220,842 bus., Hays, 213,943 bus., Daysland, 178,169 bus., Woodhouse, 176,344 bus., Dalmead, 168,173 bus., Ensign, 166,470 bus.

U. S. LABOR WOULD RESTRICT IMMIGRATION FROM CANADA

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 10.—Resolutions ordered brought out on the floor of today's session of the American Federation of Labor convention include one asking for the restriction of immigration from Canada and Latin America. The executive council of the federation does not consider the Mexican government a trades union regime, it reported to the convention Sunday. The report was made after a 12 months' investigation of the relationship between labor and the government in the southern Republic.

A POEM—WHEN THE TIMES COMES OUT

Absolute knowledge have I none, But my aunt's washerwoman's son Heard a policeman on his beat Say to a laborer on the street That he had a letter just last week Hand written in the finest Greek From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo Who said that a son in Cuba knew Of a colored gent in a Texas town Who got it right from a circus clown That a man in the Klondike got the news From a gang of smooth American Jews About some feller in Borneo Who knew a man who claimed to know A hermit who lived beside a lake Whose mother-in-law will undertake To prove a cousin's sister's niece Has said in a nicely written piece That she has a son who knows about The hour and day that The Times comes out; Depending some on ads coming in— Which if not on Tuesday we'll raise some din.

NEW MAPS RECALL DAYS OF
EARLY FUR TRADERS

The early days of the fur traders in Canada are recalled by the publication of two new map sheets of the National Topographic series by the Topographical Survey, Department of the Interior, at Ottawa. These are the provisional editions of the Grand Rapids and The Pas sheets, adjoining each other and showing that portion of Manitoba and a small portion of Saskatchewan lying between latitudes 52.00, and 54.00, and between longitudes 98.00, and 102.00. These map sheets are published on the scale of four miles to an inch in five colours and may be obtained from the above office. The Department makes a nominal charge of fifty cents each for the maps in folder form or if printed on linen-backed paper and twenty-five cents each if on ordinary map paper.

The main topographical features are the Saskatchewan river with its tributaries, its devious passages and its lake expansions, and portion of lake Winnipegosis and lake Winnipeg. The early fur traders and explorers in canoes or York boats used the route from lake Winnipeg via Saskatchewan river to points in the far West or North. Much has been written of the picturesque nature of these early voyagers and it is interesting to trace out on these maps some of their routes of travel. The lower valley of the Saskatchewan is largely level country suitable to periodic flooding, it may readily be seen from the map by the labyrinth of watercourses shown. This valley is really the delta of the Saskatchewan river before it enters Cedar lake on its way to lake Winnipeg and the area has the characteristic delta formation. There are regular water routes followed by steamers and motor boats. In the duck shooting season this district is visited by numerous hunters as it is a feeding ground for all kinds of wild ducks. It is a trapper's paradise as the swamps and marshes swarm with muskrats. Thousands of pelts from these little fur bearers are taken every season, and find their way to the fur auction sales in Montreal or London.

From Cedar lake to lake Winnipeg the character of the country is entirely different and the Saskatchewan river flows swiftly with several rapids culminating in the Grand Rapids where there is a fall of about 75 feet. In the early days it was necessary to portage around the rapids but the Hudson's Bay Company now has a tramway from lake Winnipeg to a point on the river above the Grand Rapids. There is a very great potential source of power in the rapids at this point and no doubt some day this will be developed and utilized.

The information shown on the maps was largely obtained from photographs taken from aeroplanes under the guidance of Dominion Land Surveyors of the Topographical Survey staff acting as navigational officers. Not all of The Pas sheet was photographed, hence there are still blank spaces in the southwestern part of that map.

The two map sheets lying directly to the north of these two are also in course of preparation and will be issued soon.

A WINNING POLICY

Great successes are rarely founded on luck. This is as true of newspaper as individuals. The policy of The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, since its first issue, about 60 years ago, has been to go on improving each issue from week to week, and give its readers the best value that brains and money could produce. That policy has certainly succeeded. Today The Family Herald and Weekly Star has over one million readers, certainly some of the most about in Canada. It stuck to its policy and won the race on merit. Its readers stuck to it year after year, proving that a good thing is appreciated. At one dollar a year for that big weekly of 72 pages no home in Canada can afford to be without it.

ABLE SPEECHES MARK
CLAVE—MASONIC DISTRICT
MEETING AT HILLCREST
LARGELY ATTENDED

Blairmore, Oct. 6.—The district meeting of District No. 8, A. F. and A. M., held at Hillcrest on Wednesday afternoon and evening, was probably the most successful of its kind ever held in the district. Unusual interest attached to the occasion in view of the fact that it was held in the lodge of which M. W. Bro. G. E. Cruickshank, grand master of the provincial order, is a member.

R. W. Bro. Alex. M. Morrison, of Coleman, district deputy grand master, presided over the sessions, and there was a crowded attendance. Every lodge in the district was well represented and much business of interest to the brethren was transacted.

At the afternoon session, M. W. Bro. G. E. Cruickshank delivered a notable address, worthy of the highest traditions of the order, to which prolonged applause was accorded at the close.

A banquet of more than usual excellence was served between sessions by the Ladies' Aid of the United church, Hillcrest. Following the toast of the King, a short musical program was given, in which J. R. Smith of Blairmore, and J. R. Gresham, also of Blairmore, sang solos, and E. Constable and F. Utley of Bellevue sang a duet.

At the evening session a presentation was made to R. W. Bro. Creighton of Hillcrest, P.D.D.G.M. The election of district deputy grand master for the ensuing term resulted in R. W. Bro. F. Morris, of Alberta Lodge No. 3, Macleod, being called to that high office. Macleod was also selected as the place of the next meeting.

The following lodges were represented: Alberta No. 3, Macleod; Spitzke No. 6, Pincher Creek; Sentinel No. 25, Hillcrest; Summit No. 30, Coleman; Chinook No. 47, Cowley, and Rocky Mountain No. 86, Blairmore.

And once we saw the home team's second baseman give the opposition pitcher a chew of tobacco.

Easy way out: "But, my dear, a fur coat makes you look so stout!"

THE EMPRESS THEATRE — CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

RICHARD DIX GETS UNLOOKED FOR THIRL WHILE MAKING "MAN POWER" — TRACTOR RUNS WILD AS STAR HERMANN GOES THROUGH ACTION OF MELODRAMA

Tractors make the greatest amateur movie actors in the world, according to Richard Dix. They have tempo—which is the proper spacing of their action; they have poise—the too much of it at times; and they have reserve power—which is the foundation of great personalities. "What more could be asked of a movie actor?" asks Dix.

Their only fault is that they are not amenable to direction at all times, and they are apt to be noisy—a form of self-expression that is lost in the "silent drama." During the filming of "Man Power" Richard Dix' latest Paramount picture, which comes to the Empress Theatre next Monday and Tuesday it was necessary for the star to drive a big tractor over a slippery hillside road, around trees, up over a steep incline, across a rocky space terminating in a cliff and up to the edge of a dam in a heavy night rain.

Director Clarence Badger and Dix understood the situation perfectly. They had read and re-read Ray Harris and Sam Mintz' script. The tractor wasn't consulted about it.

Everything went well at the start. When the motor was turned over it sputtered and trembled, registering anxiety and suspense like a spirited horse. Dix balanced himself in the high seat, grasped an assortment of levers kicked one or two of them and pulled another.

The big machine lumbered forward followed by three loaded trailers. One of the trailers caught in a tree, split the trunk and capped the road. But Dix and the tractor didn't know it. The director's shouts through a megaphone were lost in the roar of the tractor exhaust.

There is nothing more slippery on a wet night than California mud on a hillside. Dix and the tractor were lumbering up the incline at a great rate with sparks and shooting from the exhaust pipe when the machine displayed its first sign of temper and started to slide sideways. A small tree snapped off. Not being strapped in his seat, Dix grabbed for the nearest bit of iron and held on.

Cameramen stationed at intervals continued photographing the scene as the tractor and its two remaining trailers continued on.

A few dozen feet further up the hill, a big flat rock with a six-foot front end in the air for approximately four seconds and dove gracefully down to solid ground as though it thought it was Gertrude Ederle headed for a tank.

Dix was desperately using one hand trying to stay in his seat. With the other he reached for all the assorted levers on his snorting steed, but before he could do anything effective, he had raced down a slippery incline, felling four evergreen trees on the way, and come to an abrupt stop at the base of a cliff.

Ordinarily, scenes are repeated two or three times in the making of a movie, but this one wasn't. Mary Brian and the other members of the unit cheered and told Dix how well he had done. The sequence, he wondered whether he was being made the butt of some high class "kidding."

LOCAL THEATRE MAN TO SCREEN PLOT WITH LOCAL TALENT—INNOVATION BEING PLANNED FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24th AND 25th

Manager F. Cutler of Macleod operating the Empress Theatre has contracted for something extremely novel in the way of entertainment, the filming and showing of a scenic, made in Macleod and acted by local talent. When the film is completed it will be shown to the audiences in the city.

A scenario will be made on the stage of the Empress Theatre, which will be prepared for the purpose with the latest equipment—Klieg lights and all. A cast of local talent will be chosen to enact the parts in the scenario. It will be a wonderful opportunity for the budding Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks.

The idea, mainly is to give the people an opportunity to see how films are made. The audience will sit back in comfortable chairs and watch the actor performing in front of the camera, and being local characters, it should make an interesting performance. About three weeks after the play has been filmed, it will be brought back to Macleod and screened. As an added attraction between acts, the camera and lights will be turned and the audience filmed, these shots to be shown in conjunction with the main pictures when they are brought back to the city. Every one has a desire to see himself or herself as others see them, this given an opportunity for which they have no doubt longed.

REAL WESTERNERS ARE REVIVED IN SMASHING THOMSON FILM

It is a long long time since the good old days when the kids used to nearly raise the roof off the theatre as the Indians came tearing through the hills with the cow-boys in hot pursuit. Since then western pictures have become a trifle anemic and the good old thrillers have been laid away on dusty shelves.

Deep in the heart of almost every boy is a wish to see the same sort of thing, and many a grown-up thinks enviously of the times when he used to sit and watch the big-hatted Mexicans lie behind their cactus bushes and blaze away at the avenging cowboy.

"Arizona Nights" which is coming to the Empress Theatre Friday and Saturday, is one of these real westerns. Fred Thomson, and his great horse Silver King, are going to give the boys, young and old, a glimpse of real western frontier life, truly authentic in every detail, and as thrilling as any exploit from the pages of Fenimore Cooper.

Fred, who in his comparatively short career, has been an athletic hero at Princeton, a boy scout leader in Nevada, and a Chaplain to the U. S. Forces in Flanders, dedicated his movie career to the boys of the United States, and he tries to give them the type of picture that they really want. In "Arizona Nights" he manages to give the greatest performance of a real western that has left Hollywood in many a long year.

Other players in the cast are Nora Lane, J. P. McGowan, Bill Courtwright, Lottie Williams, William McNichols, Dan Peterson, and Silver King. Lloyd Ingraham, who has directed most of the Thomson pictures, also handled this one.

MOVIE SCENES TO BE FILMED AT THE EMPRESS THEATRE MONDAY AND TUESDAY, OCT. 24th and 25th.

Making movies on the stage and actual filming of a feature picture, acted entirely by Macleod people will transform the stage of the Empress theatre with thrills, action, glamor and comedy into a screen studio. To provide the utmost in perfection and realism a complete production staff has been imported. Director, assistant director, camera man and electricians. Studio equipment lights and cameras are also being imported.

Each performance an actual movie scene will be taken, the director handling the local cast and the camera man shooting it with the aid of powerful lights and at the end of the scene the audience will be taken on the streets. The pictures taken during these two days will be shown at the Empress later. Don't forget to see yourself in the movies.

AWESOME SPECTACLE—COMBINES BEAUTY WITH MYSTERY

The limitless realm of the motion picture has made possible the presenting before the public eye of the most extravagant beauty, breathtaking thrills, majestic scenery as well as weird and fantastic bits of life from the remote and far away corners of this earth. It runs the gamut in the triumph of pictorialization or Sir H. Rider Haggard's greatest book "She." The tale of love and romance surrounding the most marvelous beauty "She," who was said to possess eternal life, has never been surpassed in modern literature. Playing the role of "She" is Betty Blythe, renowned for her reputation as the most perfectly formed woman in motion pictures to-day. Her part calls for such a display of physical beauty that Miss Blythe alone was found to possess the gift of perfect physical charm. The art lover as well as the sensation hunter will find full satisfaction in witnessing the showing of "She" at Empress Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday next.

Besides Betty Blythe many other famous screen characters take part, including Carlyle Blackwell and Mary Odette.

SIR RIDER HAGGARD'S "SHE" WITH BETTY BLYTHE

When the filming of the immortal romance "She" by the late Sir Rider Haggard, was decided upon, the producer was confronted by a seemingly unsurmountable difficulty. Who was there, among the galaxy of famous stars over-anxious to appear in the title role, who would be the living "She" Divine of form, possessing a wondrous beauty, yet with the ability to act one of the most difficult parts ever assigned—a motion picture actress; these were the necessary requirements. But one screen star possessed all these gifts, Miss Betty Blythe was chosen after a search of talent covering two continents. As one famous critic aptly put it, "Miss Blythe is the living, breathing, wondrous 'She,' for after her first appearance you even to regard that there is a film showing on the screen. Lulled by her exquisite existence you become part of the great romance, and not until it is all over do you come back to earth to realize you have been witnessing a film presentation." "She" is showing at Empress Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

ANOTHER PICTURE FROM A STEWART E. WHITE STORY

Stewart Edward White, popular short story writer, novelist, and philosopher, has written several stories from which a number of important motion pictures have been based. "Arizona Nights," P. B. O. production starring Fred Thomson, is the latest film to be adapted from a White story. The picture will be shown at the Empress Theatre Friday and Saturday, where large crowds are acclaiming it as one of the finest westerns ever turned out.

CALGARY MURDER — ARCHIE MORRISON SLAIN BY HOLD-UP MAN IN LIZZIE RAY'S HOUSE

Calgary, Oct. 10.—Archibald Morrison, a plasterer, known as "Scottie Morrison," was shot through the heart, dying instantly, and a colored woman, Ethel Crosslin, the mother of five children, was seriously injured by another shot in a holdup that took place at 817 Fifth street east at 12.50 a.m. Sunday.

The murderer is doubtless carrying a disguised face, the result of having been beaten by a pitcock which had the prongs broken off. This was wielded in the hands of Lizzie Ray, the proprietor of the house. The murderer got away, but the police have thrown out a net and hope to have him in its coils shortly.

The killer knocked at the door of the house, which was opened to him by Mrs. Crosslin. He asked: "Can I get a drink?"

Slayer was Taken to Kitchen for Drink

Mrs. Crosslin insisted that he come in and took him out into the kitchen. He then asked her if she were alone, and on being answered in the affirmative, produced a revolver and commanded her to throw up her hands. She immediately complied. But the Ray woman, who was in

CO-ORDINATION AND CO-OPERATION

When trusts and combinations
first made their appearance in the business world consumers looked on them with suspicion and distrust. It was an open secret that increased profits were the one great object of these ventures, and the control of the production and sale of certain commodities placed the consumer at the mercy of the trusts.

Unquestionably there have been many cases in which the trusts have taken advantage of their power, but it must be admitted that, in the main,
prices have been reduced, quality
has been improved, and consumers have been infinitely better served by the big corporations than could have been possible under the old system.

True, the trusts are organized for profit, but profit depends on consumption, and every industry is today striving to reduce the cost of production in order that fair and reasonable prices will stimulate the demand.

In the evolution of business methods, the co-ordination of industry is inevitable. The whole structure of our industrial life is based on science applied to mechanics and to productive processes.

Co-ordination is the application of distinguished father, indicates a notion on the Premier's part that the dictatorship will remain in his family and that one of his sons

will succeed him.

It all depends, not on Mussolini,
but on Mussolini's wife.
As any amateur breeder of cattle knows, it is a pretty well-established law of heredity that male children usually take the bulk of their characteristics from their maternal grandfather.

So that no matter how illustrious Mussolini may be, the perpetuation of the family dignity and power will depend upon the kind of blood that flows in Signora Mussolini's veins.
Your descendants cannot rise much higher than your wife's ancestors.

WHY WORRY?

Hysterical alarmists who are convinced that the younger generation is headed straight for the bow-wow may find a grain of comfort in the observation of Dr. E. C. Broome, superintendent of the Philadelphia
public schools.

The schoolboy of today is better behaved than was his father, is happier in his work, makes better use of his time, and is getting a better brand of education than used to be dispensed in the little red schoolhouse. All this according to Dr. Broome.

Certain it is that education today
is making a rather strenuous effort to please the student body with its diversity of subjects and scientific methods of instruction. It has overcome its status as a dreaded ordeal and has become a welcome part of adolescent life. Surely perdition and education do not lie along the same path.

YANKES WON FOURTH STRAIGHT GAME FROM PITTSBURGH AND WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Yankee Stadium, New York, Oct.
8.—The New York Yankees won the world's baseball championship today
by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates for the fourth straight time. The score was 4 to 3 and Combs scored the winning run in the ninth when Miljus made a wild pitch with the bases filled. The end of the game was an anti-climax. Miljus, who received Hill on the mound for Pittsburgh, had seen the bases filled with none out, and after fanning Gehrig
and Meusel, pitched one to Lazzari that Gooch only managed to get the tip of his glove on, Combs trotting home with the winning run.

SELECT AND CURE SEED CORN NOW

To insure a dependable supply of seed corn it should be selected early—before severe frost and carefully cured. The best seed corn to be had is that which ripens in the district where it is to be grown, as it is more certain of producing a satisfactory crop than that shipped in from several hundred miles south.

Corn of all kinds is later than usual this year on account of late planting and the cool weather that we had during May and June, but a considerable proportion will make good seed if it is gathered before frost and cured thoroughly. If the first varieties be started to class they may be safely gathered, and if the dents show sign of denting they will cure into a good grade of seed.

As soon as the ears have been shelled the husks should be stripped back or removed to allow the moisture to escape quickly. They may be tied up in bunches so that the air can circulate freely around them or they may be placed in a wire rack made by nailing chicken wire on each side of a two by four framework. It is important that the ears
do not touch one another, that there be a free circulation of air in the room, and that the temperature of the room be above freezing point until the ears are well dried out. To be sure of this it is usually advisable to make provision for heating
the room used for curing the corn.
When the corn is completely dry severe frost will not damage it but when it is full of moisture it may be completely ruined by frost
even when under cover.

In a season when good seed corn
can be secured it is advisable to save enough for two seasons planting as there are years when little corn ripens.

Keep the Corn Shows in mind and show some of the best you have grown to see how it compares with that others have produced. Or better still attend one of the corn shows and see the different lots for yourself. There is no better way to get to know seed corn.

A dressed spring chicken is less trouble, but you have to guess
which spring it got here.

BUY AT HOME Spend Your Money in Macleod

Purchases representing thousands of dollars are lost to us, to our trade, to our clerks and employees, to our laborers and artisans, to all the people of Macleod who exist on the products of their work. This money, if spent at home, would help to recreate Macleod financially, give a wider field of activities in business, would be helpful to every resident of this town.

If we purchased regularly from local merchants, this money would circulate in Macleod in a welcome manner. Our merchants merit our patronage; it is to our interest, and the duty of all of us to encourage the local merchant. He is one of us, he lives among us, he has the right to be encouraged by us, he is anxious to have our custom, and to give us satisfaction. We should under all circumstances give him preference, price for price, quality for quality. And nearly always the price that our local merchant asks is, if we compare the quality, just as cheap as that of the outside merchant.

Never purchase merchandise by catalogues from foreign houses before assuring yourself that you cannot procure the same articles, of the same quality (and frequently of better quality) at the same price from your local merchant.

HIGH SCHOOL LITERARY REORGANIZES

With the increase in the high school attendance unusual interest is being shown this year in the high school literary society which was organized Friday in Miss E. H.
Atkinson's Gr. IX room. C. A.
Anderson, Principal of the High School, took charge of the organization work and Miss E. H. Cobb gave a forceful talk on higher standards
in connection with the school papers.

A heated election resulted in the selection of the following officers:
President—Jean Gordon.
Vice-President—Jack Fanset.
Sec.-Treas.—David Grier.
Executive committee: Irene Tweed, Doris Watson, Lee Watchorn, and Norval Marks.
Editor—Jennie Barr.
The literary society will meet the third Friday of each month in the Gr. IX room and once a month in the High School building to give the advanced pupils drill in public speaking.

A "Mock Trial" will be the feature Nov. 18th. This is a natural sequel to the "Mock Wedding" staged last year.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEET-

3 p.m.

The first fall meeting of the Women's Institute promises to be one of great interest. The convenors of the standing committees of "Education and Better Schools" and
"Child Welfare and Public Health" are arranging the program. As these subjects are of vital import to all mothers, the committees hope many will take advantage of this opportunity and accept the cordial invitation of the Institute to attend this meeting.

JUBILEE CITY GIRLS' CLUB IN SESSION

The Jubilee City Girls' Club met
on Saturday last in the Parish Hall.
They opened by singing "O Canada",
saluting the union jack and repeating their code. Minutes of previous meeting adopted by motion of Edith Arner, seconded by Winnie Lane, then birthday remembrances and secretary's report. Solo by Ruth Ringland. Roll call answered by suggestions for Halloween party;
current events by Helen McNab and Connie Ried. Community singing—
"Sweet and Low," and "Old Black Joe." Plans were discussed for con-ederation tea on Nov. 12th, committees were appointed and the girls planned a hike. An address on "England," was given by Mrs. Hood.

Initiation of new members—(Lena Elin and Eileen Bawden) then took place. Jokes by Margaret Hillier.
"God Save the King," and then refreshments were served by the girls.

He thought it was Opportunity knocking, but upon investigation found Temptation waiting for him
and was pleased.

GENERAL MERCHANTS—DRY GOODS, LADIES' AND MEN'S UNDERWEAR, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, VEGETABLES AND FRUITS.

Our sensational cutting and exciting slashing of prices in the Silk Department was very much appreciated. But, honestly, many did not know whether it was rayon or pure silk they were buying. We told the customers that the length of time they wore them would tell the tale, also the number of times they washed them in Lux and the care they took in drying them. But to many of them it went into one ear and came out of the other. But they understood one thing, that in all silk goods if properly washed or rinsed, figuratively, they will last forever. But many of them are like children, they can't concentrate their mind long enough to inwardly digest the truths so painstakingly brought before them. But their eyes are taking in the good tickets on the lines. It's here, just look at that, just fancy that silk sweater marked down to $2.50. I bought a beautiful green one right here in this blessed store, and the clerk charged me $17.50 and here it is offered for two bucks and a half. Look at these shoes in the case for three dollars. I bought the same a few weeks back for $7.50. But if a woman keeps her eyes open, I must certainly say they have great bargains. Mr. Reach does not believe in shelf worn goods. If an article hangs fire he cleans it out. He had last week a lot of beautiful French Kid boots. No one wanted them, they were sizes 2½ and 3. You can see that a merchant is often a heavy loser.

I'll tell you why I'm going to buy a Westinghouse—

"We've had a terrible time deciding which radio set to buy—every maker claims to have the best.

"Yesterday morning Jack said, 'Well what about our electric range and appliances? They're made by Westinghouse and they are certainly alright—never give a moment's worry.

We will gladly demonstrate the 1928 Westinghouse models and explain the many improvements that make them better.
